WAGE ORDER NO. NCR-28

PROVIDING FOR A MINIMUM WAGE INCREASE FOR PRIVATE WORKERS IN THE NATIONAL CAPITAL REGION

WHEREAS, the Regional Tripartite Wages and Productivity Board - NCR (RTWPB-NCR) is mandated under Republic Act No. 6727 (RA No. 6727), otherwise known as the Wage Rationalization Act, to periodically assess wage rates and conduct continuing studies in the determination of the minimum wage applicable in the region or industry;

WHEREAS, the Board approved Wage Order No. NCR-27 on June 23, 2026 vis-a-vis its wage-related activities, matters of which are hereby incorporated by reference;

WHEREAS, the non-implementation of Wage Order No. NCR-27 resulted from the successive issuance of judicial injunctive reliefs, specifically a Status Quo Ante Order (SQAO) issued July 24, 2026, a Temporary Restraining Order (TRO), and a Writ of Preliminary Injunction (WPI), as a consequence of which, Wage Order No. NCR-27 never took effect;

WHEREAS, pursuant to Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) Administrative Order No. 264, series of 2026, providing the unified guidelines for the implementation, monitoring, and exemption from wage orders, RTWPBs are directed to continuously monitor wage order implementation and compliance within their respective jurisdictions;

WHEREAS, exercising its motu proprio jurisdiction laid down under RA No. 6727 and the Omnibus Rules on Minimum Wage Determination, as amended, the Board caused the publication of its Notice of Public Hearing in Remate, a newspaper of general circulation, on August 17, 2026;

WHEREAS, to assess and determine the propriety of issuing a new wage order, a Public Hearing was conducted on September 2, 2026 at the Occupational Safety and Health Center, Quezon City;

WHEREAS, after a thorough review and evaluation of the existing socio-economic conditions, labor productivity, and gross regional domestic product, and after due consideration of the petitions filed and positions of the labor and employer sectors and current events without prejudicing the pending legal proceedings, the following were established:

a. The need to adjust the current minimum wage rate to address the decline in the value of real wages and recovering purchasing power lost through inflation;

b. External shocks caused by international crises in relation to labor market performance as well as poverty.

WHEREAS, should compliance with the increase mandated in this wage order result in wage distortions within enterprises, workers and employers may seek guidance and technical assistance from the RTWPB-NCR Secretariat in addressing the same. They may also refer to the formulas and examples provided under NWPC Advisory No. 01, Series of 2023, which serve as guide in adjusting wage structures to correct wage distortions; further, employers and workers may likewise develop and agree on a formula suited to their specific needs and circumstances, including through collective bargaining, as appropriate.
